weightlifting equipment platform

weightlifting platform provides the perfect weightlifting training platform and features a premium metal frame, with bamboo boards as the centerpiece and thick

interchangeable rubber matting squares that can absorb the impact from dropping weights and reduce noise levels. The REBEL weightlifting platform also features four weight stoppers to prevent a loaded barbell from rolling off the platform. They also provide an area for bands to be attached for resistance training. Solid floor brackets ensure that your platform does not move during use.weightlifting equipment platform
