

Brass or Bronze Siamese

We supply Brass or Bronze Siamese. Siamese Fire department connection is one of the most important and convenient allies for firefighters on-site. Because of this, there are several requirements in place to guarantee its accessibility. One of them has to do with the distance between a building's fire hydrant and its Siamese connection. The two Siamese couplings connect servicing hoses that pump water from fire engines. We are expecting to become your long term partner in China.
