

V-shape Glass Thermometer

The China Ningdian® high quality V-shape glass thermometer are rugged design for durability, with an aluminum case and magnifying acrylic thermometer filled with blue colored organic liquid. Which is compact, sturdy, cast aluminum glass tube thermometers, The thermometers castings are finished in anodized gold colour, the surface is coated for protection from outside elements. Threaded sockets with a solid hexagonal nut .. Featuring easy readability, small size, and adaptability, it's the perfect alternative to economical thermometers typically used in industrial applications. Dial scales are in both °F and °C.

Product Description

Industrial V-shape glass thermometers made in China factory have lower mount (LM) design with a brass bulb shield. and lower back mount (LBM) design and has a brass bulb shield. We also call them straight glass thermometers and 90° Angle glass Thermometers, and the Stem/thermowell material is brass or st.st.

The Ningdian® industrial V-shape glass thermometer can measure temperature with accuracy of ± 1 scale division and is available in 0-100°F or 30-240°F ranges. The temperature assembly can be rotated 90° in either direction with respect to pivot, so it can face left, right, front or back. These units are in stock at our Distribution Center and available for immediate delivery.

Industrial V-shape glass Thermometer(Standard Features)
Casing size:	180mm×55mm or 250×55mm
Casing material:	Aluminium Case
Two Types:	Straight or 90°Angle
Stem:	304 st.st. or 316 st.st.
Thread:	3/8",1/2",or 3/4" BSP or NPT
Accuracy:	±1%
Range:	From -30°C to 250°C