

Disc Winding Packaging Machine

The LLDPE winding film of this Yilane Tech® high quality Disc Winding Packaging Machine is the main packaging material, which is used to wrap the bulk goods stacked on the pallet. The goods after winding packaging are more stable, it is beautiful and tidy, and can play a good role in waterproof, dust-proof, anti-theft, anti-scattering, and convenient for entering and exiting goods.

Product Description

Disc Winding Packaging Machine is suitable for container transportation of bulk goods and packaging of spare parts pallets. Yilane Tech® brand disc winding packaging machine is a common packaging equipment for machinery. The winding machine uses film to wrap materials. It is very suitable for freight logistics companies to pack irregular objects in a centralized manner to reduce the loss of goods.

Yilane Tech® disc winding packaging machine has the advantages of convenient entry and exit of the packaged objects, wide range of wrapping packaging, easy operation and convenient adjustment.

Disc Winding Packaging Machine Basic features:

Unmanned operation. Automatic feeding, film feeding, winding, film cutting, smoothing, discharging, etc

PLC programmable controller and HMI touch screen are used for automatic warning, Independent control cabinet such as automatic fault alarm is very convenient for maintenance

Solid body design, reasonable and ingenious electromechanical integration

